Credit Card Financial & Customer Analytics Dashboard

Insights, Findings and Recommendations

Key Insights & Findings

1. TX, NY and CA contribute approximately 73% of total revenue, indicating strong geographic concentration.
2. Blue Card customers generate the highest revenue among card categories.
3. Swipe transactions contribute the largest share of spending activity.
4. Business professionals and high-income customer segments drive significant revenue.
5. Male customers contribute slightly higher revenue than female customers.
6. Portfolio generated about $55.3M revenue and $45M interest income.
7. Delinquency rate stands at 6.07%, requiring continuous risk monitoring.

Business Recommendations

1. Strengthen customer acquisition and retention efforts in TX, NY and CA while expanding into lower-performing states.
2. Promote premium upgrades and loyalty programs for Blue Card customers.
3. Target business professionals and higher-value customer segments with personalized offers.
4. Implement proactive delinquency monitoring, payment reminders and risk-based interventions.
5. Encourage digital and contactless payment adoption through rewards and cashback incentives.

Executive Summary

Analyzed $55.3M revenue, $45M interest income and a 6.07% delinquency rate to identify high-value customer segments, top-performing regions and opportunities for revenue growth, customer retention and risk reduction.